

RIGHT MIND, RIGHT CAREER

FREE Workshop

For the active JOB SEEKER

---

Today's job market is dynamic and challenging.
Join us for a fresh perspective on your job search.

Topics will be:

- Positive Mindset
- Emotional Stressors
- Overcoming Barriers
- Job Search Tips
- Workplace Skills Review
- Resume Writing
- Interviewing Techniques
- Networking, includes LinkedIn and Twitter

Also find out how federal dollars can help you learn new skills in class or on the job.

Workshops are held at Jefferson County Libraries and begin at 10:30 a.m. to Noon.

- May 11 – Standley Lake
- May 18 – Arvada
- May 29 – Evergreen
- June 1 – Columbine
- June 11 – Lakewood
- June 15 – Belmar
- June 26 – Golden

Speaker: Linda Sollars, training facilitator at the Jefferson County Workforce Center, has worked in corporate settings, owned her own business, taught in the Master of Arts program at Regis University, and has more than 15 years experience in helping people with career transitions.

No registration required. Space is Limited.

Note: All attendees must register with Connecting Colorado. Visit www.connectingcolorado.com.

To learn more about the Jefferson County Workforce Center and the no-cost resources offered to job seekers and businesses, visit www.jeffcoworkforce.org.

This is an equal opportunity program and has auxiliary aids and services available upon request to individuals

